Ask HN: What would you use if you could hide from the law? - talbuka HNers, as geeks, we know that the NSA is capable of doing things that makes you and other folks uncomfortable. So, if you could just “hide” and keep your activities secret from the government, what tools would you use to accomplish your goals? ===== win_ini I would use a website with the functionality of the TOR network and the security of the onion router. Where you choose a website you want to use, and it would connect you to that website anonymously.
